Raashee is a 2019 Indian Kannada language romantic comedy starring Vicky and Pooja Hegde. Golkonda Theatre The Golkonda Theatre is an Indian cinema and theatre located in Hyderabad, India. It was the first cinema in the city and among the first cinemas in India. It was built in 1931 by Hyderabad film producer and director Bhanumati Ramakrishna. It was later known as a cultural centre of Hyderabad. The theatre building was constructed at the same time as the Hyderabad High Court, which opened in 1932. In 1965, the theatre was converted into a Kannada movie theatre by Venkat Rao. The new owners renovated the theatre and screened movies in Kannada until 1990. From 1990 until 2002 the theatre was the location of the first Telugu movie multiplex, operated by Srikanth Films. In 2002, it began screening English language movies. In 2011, it was restored as a Kannada movie theatre. It is now a theatre with a small screen and mostly screens Bollywood movies. In 2013, Golkonda was renamed as the Mohan Bhagwat Hall.
