The goal was to present the draft declaration to the Arctic Council's Gender Programme in June 2017. In May 2017 the working group of the European Commission hosted the first official meeting in Brussels, bringing together transnational Arctic experts from over 20 countries, and following that meeting the working group set out work on the development of the draft declaration to be presented by HCA at the 8th Arctic Council meeting. In August 2017 HCA's working group held a regional webinar in Copenhagen, Denmark, bringing together representatives from various Nordic countries, to discuss and discuss the final draft of the declaration. The Helsinki Citizens Assembly's working group consists of people with extensive expertise on gender equality in the Arctic, with a focus on the conditions of gender equality in the Arctic. The working group includes 15 Arctic experts on gender equality from 7 different countries. A detailed description of the draft declaration is available here. In addition to the Helsinki Citizens Assembly the working group consists of:The University of Virginia apologized Friday for mistakenly giving its highest award to Richard Spencer, a white nationalist and leader of the alt-right movement, as part of its highest student honor, the Cavalier Daily reported. A student representative to the UVA board said that the UVA president's designation of Spencer as the
